

B.C. Wrestling Association Criminal Record Check Policy

CRIMINAL RECORD CHECK

- a) All program coaches who coach athletes 18 years of age or younger must submit to a criminal record check.
- b) The criminal record check must be renewed every three (3) years, prior to the start of the regular season play.
- c) Failure to provide a criminal record check could result in the individual being suspended from coaching.
- d) The BCWA Executive strongly recommends that all associations with athletes 18 years of age or younger, institute a policy that states no adult should be alone with a child and there should always be at least two adults present at all times around a child.

CONFIDENTIAL FILE

- The BCWA Executive shall conduct criminal records checks through mybackcheck.com who will maintain a confidential file where information has been obtained about a BCWA Member or any individual desirous of becoming involved with the BCWA in so far as it regards a criminal record or pending criminal charge.
- The BCWA Executive shall protect the personal information contained in the confidential file by making reasonable security arrangements against such risks as authorized access, collection, use, disclosure or disposal.
- The BCWA Executive shall disclose the contents of its confidential file to the President or Head of any respective association with whom the "individual" is involved or proposes to become involved and the information contained therein must be communicated to the Executive of that respective association.
- Prior to disclosing the personal information contained in the confidential file, the BCWA Executive shall make all reasonable efforts to notify the individual whose personal information is to be released.

Policies

1. The following types of offences obtained by the Criminal Record Review Search will require further investigation and possible action: convictions and allegations of such offences as sexual assault, sexual abuse, physical abuse to a minor, drug trafficking and weapons possession (but not necessarily limited thereto). Pardoned offences will also be reviewed by an appointed Volunteer Screening Officer.
2. One person who is not currently serving on any boards, committees, etc. (preferably a police or RCMP officer or a lawyer) will be appointed by the BCWA Executive to act as the BCWA's internal Volunteer Screening Officer.
3. Two more people will be appointed by the BCWA Executive who would serve as a secondary group along with the Volunteer Screening Officer which will be called the Volunteer Screening Assessment Committee. When the Volunteer Screening Officer makes a decision to allow a person to continue working/volunteering with the BCWA or one of its members after having received pertinent information contained in criminal record check regarding this person, the Volunteer Screening Assessment Committee will meet, discuss and either accept or reject the Volunteer Screening Officer's recommendation.
4. A decision regarding whether or not an applicant will be allowed to coach will be made within two weeks of receiving the Criminal Record Check, and the decision will be forwarded to the applicant and the respective Association if the applicant will not be allowed to coach with the B.C. Wrestling Association or its members. Between the time that pertinent Criminal Record information (as identified in Item 1.) is received by the appointed BCWA Volunteer Screening Officer and the time of the decision, the applicant will be suspended from all BCWA activities.

5. All notes and informal materials will be kept in a separate file. These notes and informal materials will not be contained in the Confidential File at the B.C. Wrestling Association Office.

6. Each case will be reviewed independently and fairly.

Procedures

1. Applications can be obtained by going through the on-line application process with mybackcheck.com

2. The organization who will receive all information regarding the criminal record check must be identified on the Criminal Record Check form. The organization of record must be the B.C. Wrestling Association, Suite #3014, 3713 Kensington Avenue, Burnaby, BC V3B 0A7
Step by step instructions provided.

3. If no further investigation regarding an individual Criminal Record Check is required, the Criminal Record information will be kept with mybackcheck.com and applicants will only be contacted if the applicant's Criminal Record is relevant to the Association (i.e., an offense has occurred or a charge laid regarding convictions and allegations of such offences as sexual assault, sexual abuse, physical abuse to a minor, drug trafficking and weapons possession (but not necessarily limited thereto), the applicant will be contacted by the Volunteer Screening Officer to ask if the applicant wishes to remove himself/herself from coaching with the B.C. Wrestling Association or one of its members.

Should the applicant wish to continue coaching with the B.C. Wrestling Association or one of its members, the applicant (the person who submitted the report) will be asked by the Volunteer Screening Officer to declare details about what the charge is regarding.

4. If an applicant will be asked to submit fingerprints. This is to determine that the Criminal Record Check is for the correct individual, as more than one person share the same name, there could be a mistake, etc..

6. The Volunteer Screening Officer will contact the Police Department or RCMP Office to ask if the conviction or pending charge on this person's file is what the person declared. The Police/RCMP are not allowed to disclose what the charge is, but they are allowed to affirm or deny the declaration.

7. Once a decision has been made by the Volunteer Screening Officer and/or the Volunteer Screening Assessment Committee, the applicant will be contacted in writing as to the decision of the Committee by the Volunteer Screening Officer with a carbon copy to the BCWA Executive Director.

8. If the applicant is being removed from his/her position as coach, the President of the applicant's Association will also be informed.
